What is safeguarding?

Schools have a statutory responsibility to keep children safe from harm. The National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NSPCC) defines safeguarding as:

- Protecting children from maltreatment
- Preventing impairment of children's mental and physical health or development
- Making sure children grow up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care
- Taking action to enable all children to have the best outcomes

What are schools expected to do?

Schools must comply with the current safeguarding guidance from the Department for Education, called Keeping Children Safe in Education (published September 2024). This means, for example:

- Having a designated safeguarding lead (DSL), who is trained to support staff, contribute to assessing children and liaise with other agencies In our school we have a Lead DSL Miss Sarah Morris and 1 Deputy DSL Mrs Zena Hazell.
- Having a child protection policy, and procedures covering specific safeguarding issues. These can be found on our school website in the safeguarding and policy sections.

- Ensuring that adults working in the school are safe to work with children, by carrying out background checks (through the Disclosure and Barring Service DBS) and having someone on interview panels who is trained in 'safer recruitment'.
- Ensuring that all staff receive annual safeguarding and child protection training as a minimum.

What does safeguarding look like in our school?

- We respond appropriately to an unplanned absence, or to a pattern of poor attendance
- We track concerns about children confidentially. We protect information about your child and only share it appropriately
- We teach pupils about safeguarding issues, including how to respond to concerns, in lesson, circle time and in assemblies on personal, social, health and economic (PSHE) education
